

2006 Elderton Barossa Shiraz

Critiques & Trade Publications

James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2010

90 POINTS

"Retains bright hue; has good structure and length to its black fruits, which are framed by gentle vanillin oak."

The Big Red Wine Book - Campbell Mattinson & Gary Walsh 2009/10

91 POINTS

"This continues an excellent run for Elderton Estate's shiraz – the 2004 and 2005 releases were superb too....Easy-drinking appeal, sure, but a damn fine example of it. It tastes of cherry, blackberries, earth and ground coffee, with cedary oak offering firm support. It's moderately intense with a sweet, malty aftertaste and very good length."

Gourmet Traveller WINE Magazine 2009

BEST BUY WINES

"This is the little brother to Elderton's flagship Command Shiraz, one of the more attractive blockbuster styles in the Barossa. It's a smooth, nicely balanced red that's starting to show some savoury complexities from development, with licorice, chocolate and aniseed to the fore. It's not too oaky nor alcoholic, but is full of honest Barossa flavour, fruit-sweet on the mid-palate and with a lush, silky texture. Just delicious. Drink it now and for the next 8 to 10 years."

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar 2008

91 POINTS

"Bright ruby. Sexy oak spices and blackberry on the nose, with a deeper boysenberry quality developing with air. Sappy and velvety in texture, with penetrating dark berry, bitter cherry skin and baking spice flavors. Finishes broad, sweet and long, repeating the dark fruit notes and leaving an alluring violet pastille note behind."

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate 2009

91 POINTS

"The 2006 Shiraz Nuriootpa was sourced from 60-year-old vines. Deep crimson-colored, it has an already multifaceted perfume of smoke, black pepper, bacon, and blueberry. This leads to a smooth-textured, ripe Shiraz with layers of savory fruit, soft tannins, and a pure finish. Drink it over the next eight years."
